

Southern Alps Treks

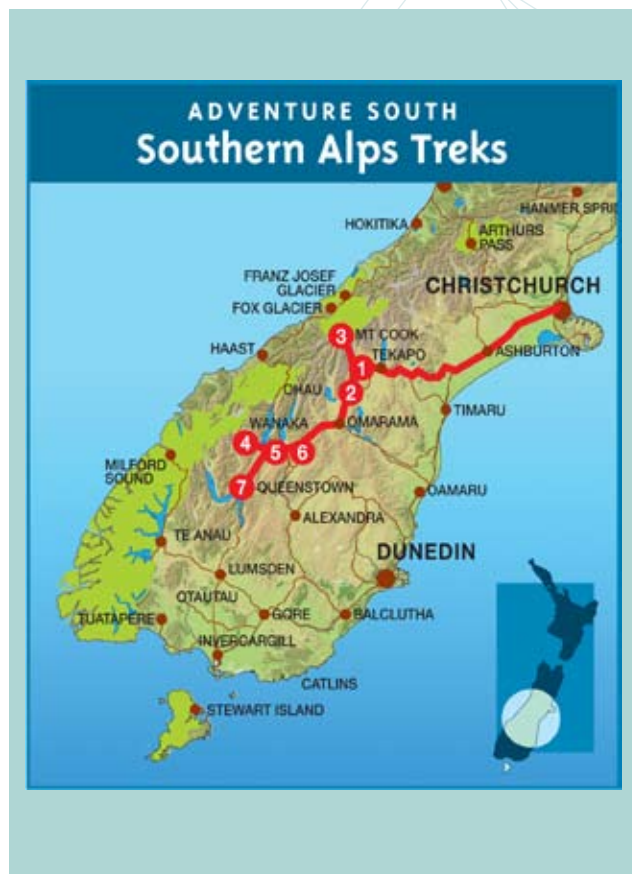

An eight day itinerary for the serious hiker, featuring a combination of stunning alpine walks and a diverse selection of accommodation: from private mountain huts and tenting, to en-suited motels and lodges.

Southern Alps Treks

There is little doubt that some of the world's finest alpine walking is found in the South Island of New Zealand. A region of untamed beauty with alpine meadows that extend to the glaciers and snowfields beneath the picture perfect summits of Mt Cook, Mt Aspiring and other peaks that form the Southern Alps. Experience some of the best of New Zealand trekking in this compact 7 day hiking itinerary finishing with an awesome heli-hike from the Remarkables above Queenstown.

- eight days of alpine exploration with the chance to climb two easy trekking peaks
- enjoy the unique experience of private mountain accommodation
- watch the Southern Alps unfold as you hike along remote alpine tracks to the summit of two peaks
- share the mountain vista with the keas, New Zealand's native parrot
- experience the excitement of up to three helicopter flights in stunning mountain scenery
